2d: On the 1927 stamp the Parthenon at the top of the Acropolis is indistinct and blurred. On the 1933 stamp the Parthenon is strongly outlined and clear. Between the two pillars at the lower right are four blocks of marble. These blocks are clear and distinct on the 1933 stamp but run together on the 1927 issue.

Sizes in millimetres:

- 501, 1927, 18x24 1/2.
- 1933, 18 1/2 x 24 1/2.
- 1d, 1927, 24 1/2 x 17 1/2.
- 1931, 24 1/2 x 17 1/2.
- 1933, 24 1/2 x 18 1/2.
- 2d, 1927, 24 1/2 x 17 1/2.
- 1933, 24 1/2 x 18 1/2.

In 1922-23 some postage due stamps were used for ordinary postage.

In 1916 Nos. J52, J63 to J65 and J67 to J74 were surcharged for the Mount Athos District (see note after No. N166) but were never issued there. By error some of them were put in use as ordinary postage due stamps in Dec., 1924. In 1932 the balance of them were burned.

OCCUPATION AND ANNEXATION STAMPS.

During the Balkan wars, 1912-13, Greece occupied certain of the Aegean Islands and part of Western Turkey. She subsequently acquired these territories and they were known as the New Greece.

Most of the special issues for the Aegean Islands were made by order of the military commanders.

For Use in the Aegean Islands Occupied by Greece.

GUADELOUPE, W. I.

(gò'dè-loöp')

A French Colony in the West Indies lying between Montserrat and Dominica. Consists of two large islands, Basse-Terre and Grande-Terre and five smaller islands. Has been a French possession since 1643. The chief products of the Colony are sugar, coffee, cocoa and rum, which is produced in large quantities, there being about 2,500,000 gallons exported annually. Like most of the West Indies, Guadeloupe has suffered from the forces of the elements. In 1928 the Colony was visited by the most severe hurricane in its history. Over 660 lives were lost and the property damage amounted to about $20,000,000. The recovery was prompt and at present the Colony is in a prosperous state. French currency is used.

GUAM, A.
(gwām)

A former Spanish island possession in the Pacific Ocean, one of the Marianas group, about 1,450 miles east of the Philippines. Was captured by the United States during the Spanish-American War and formally ceded to the United States by treaty following the cessation of hostilities. Stamps overprinted "Guam" were in use for a short period but were superseded by the regular postage stamps of the United States in 1900.

GUATEMALA, C. A.

(gwä'tä-mä'lä)

A Republic in Central America lying south of Mexico and north of Salvador and Honduras. Originally the home of the Mayas, a race of Indians. Was conquered by Spain in 1522 and remained under Spanish control until 1824. Complete independence was secured in 1838 when the present republic was formed. It has an area of about 8,290 square miles or about the size of the State of Pennsylvania. The capital is Guatemala City. The monetary unit is the quetzal, which takes its name from a rare native bird, which also forms the national emblem of the country. This venerated bird with scarlet breast, bright green plumage and long, graceful tail feathers, was chosen by Guatemalians as their national emblem because it typifies freedom, since it will not live in captivity.

The impression of the engraved stamps is sharper than that of the lithographed. In the engraved stamps a few of the horizontal lines at the extreme top of the design are heavier than those below them. The second 5c of the engraved stamp has a larger numeral than the lithographed stamp, as is shown in the illustrations.

During the years 1912 to 1926 the Post Office Department perforated the word "OFICIAL" on limited quantities of the following stamps: Nos. 114 to 123, 132, 141 to 149, 151, 152, 153, 155, 165, 166, 167, 202, 210, 211 to 229 and AR2. The perforating was done in blocks of four stamps at a time and was of two types.

A rubber handstamp "OFICIAL" was also used during the same period and was applied in violet, red, blue or black to stamps Nos. 117, 118, 121, 122, 123, 165, 166, 167, 174 and 202 to 218.

Both perforating and handstamping were done in the post office at Guatemala City and use of the stamps was limited to that city.

HAITI, W. I.

(hā'ti)

A negro republic occupying the western portion of Hispaniola, the second largest island of the West Indies. At one time it was the richest and the most important of all the French Colonial possessions, exports amounting to as much as fifty million dollars a year and total investments in the colony being estimated at over two hundred million dollars. In the latter part of the 18th Century was the scene of an uprising of the negroes (mostly slaves imported from Africa), who, under the leadership of Toussaint l'Ouverture, "The First of the Blacks," were successful in driving the white landowners from the colony. After some twelve years of desultory warfare, with the French and later with the English, which was marked with great loss of life, the colony was declared an independent government in 1804. The country promptly split into the northern and southern governments which waged civil war for many years following, at one time the northern portion becoming a kingdom under Christophe. Eventually the country was reunited and is now operating under a constitution ratified in 1918. It is said that the monetary unit of the country, the gourde, takes its name from an incident created by King Christophe who confiscated all gourds and forced the natives to buy them back with coffee. With the money raised from the coffee, Christophe established the national treasury. Capital, Port-au-Prince. Area, 10,200 square miles, approximately the size of the State of New Hampshire.

1¼s: The rosettes between the words of the inscription have a well defined open circle in the center of the originals, while in the reprints this circle is filled up.

In the upper part of the top of the "g" of "Shilling", there is a thin vertical line which is missing in the reprints.

The two lower lines of the triangle in the upper left corner are of different thicknesses in the originals while in the reprints they are of equal thickness.

The labels at the right and left containing the inscriptions are 2½ mm. in width in the originals while they are 2½ mm. in reprints.

1½s: The originals are printed on thinner paper than the reprints. This is easily seen by turning the stamps over, when on the originals the color and impression will clearly show through, which is not the case in the reprints.

The vertical stroke of the upper part of the "g" in Shilling is very short on the originals, scarcely crossing the top line, while in the reprints it almost touches the center of the "g".

The lower part of the "g" of Shilling, in the originals, barely touches the inner line of the frame, in some stamps it does not touch it at all, while in the reprints the whole stroke runs into the inner line of the frame.

HAWAII, O.

(hä-wi'e)

The Hawaiian, or Sandwich Islands, were discovered by Captain Cook in 1778. The islands constituted an independent kingdom until 1893 when the sovereign, Queen Liliuokalani, was deposed and a provisional government formed. In accordance with a request of the people, they were formally annexed as a territory of the United States in 1898. Since that time the postage stamps of the mainland have been used. The islands lie about two thousand miles southwest of San Francisco on the steamship lanes to Australia and New Zealand. Despite their great distance from the mainland, there is frequent boat service and with modern means of travel they are reached within eight days from New York City.

In 1885 the Postmaster General wished to have on sale complete sets of the stamps of Hawaii, but was unable to find either the stone from which Nos. 27 and 28, or the plate from which No. 29 was printed. He therefore sent a copy of No. 29 to the American Bank Note Company, with an order to engrave a new plate like it and print 10,000 stamps therefrom.

In December, 1885, on the delivery of the stamps, half of them (5000) were overprinted "Specimen" in blue. The original No. 29, was printed in sheets of fifteen (5x3), but the plate of these "Official Imitations" was made up of fifty stamps (10x5). Later, in 1887, the original plate from which No. 29 was printed was discovered, and, after retouching, 35,500 stamps were printed. These, like the originals, were printed in sheets of fifteen. They were delivered during 1889 and 1890, and 10,000 of them were overprinted "Reprint" at that time. In 1892 all remaining unsold in the Post Office were overprinted "Reprint".

No. 29 is red in color, and printed on very thin white wove paper. No. 50 is orange vermilion in color, on thin yellow paper. In No. 50 the vertical line on the left hand side of the stamp and on the right of the floreate ornaments, touches the horizontal line over the label "Elua Keneta", while in the other two varieties, Nos. 29 and 51, it does not touch the horizontal line by half a millimetre. In No. 50 there are three leaflets in the spandrel above "UKU", while in Nos. 29 and 51 there are four. No. 51 is carmine in color and printed on medium thick yellow paper.

Although not made to fill a postal requirement it is claimed that both Nos. 50 and 51 were available for postage.

HEJAZ (ARABIA), A.

(hē-jäz')

A former kingdom in Arabia which, since 1925, has become part of the kingdom of Nejd-Hejaz. The Grand Sherif Husein ibn Ali, Emir of Mecca, received a guarantee of recognition from Great Britain in event his warfare against Turkey was successful, and in 1916 he proclaimed the Kingdom of Hejaz an independent country, laying claim himself to the title of King of the Arabs. Tribal warfare followed, which eventuated in the capture of the Hejaz by Ibn Saud who became King of Hejaz and Sultan of Nejd, uniting the two kingdoms into the present government, which was formally recognized by the United States in 1931. Now called Saudi-Arabia.

The overprint in the tablets on Nos. 160 to 185 inclusive reads: "5 Rabi' al' awwal, 1343" (October 5, 1924), the date of the accession of King Ali.

The tablets vary slightly in size. Each is found reading upward or downward and at either side of the stamp.

Copies of these stamps (perforated or imperforate) without the overprint, with the exception of No. 186, were not regularly issued and were not available for postage.

No. 185 without overprint is a proof. Two sheets were overprinted by error and were put on sale with the ordinary stamps.

For later issues see Nejd.

HELIGOLAND, E.

(hēl'i-gò-länd')

An island off the north coast of Germany, being part of the province of Schleswig Holstein of the German Reich. The island was, until 1890, a possession of the British who in that year relinquished their claims in favor of Germany in return for recognition by the latter of the supremacy of British interests in Zanzibar and Pemba. Stamps of Heligoland ceased with this arrangement and those of Germany proper have since been in use.

HONDURAS, C. A.

(hön-doo' räs ; -dū'-)

A republic in Central America, lying south of Guatemala and north of Nicaragua. Chief produce is the banana crop which reaches considerable proportions. "Panama" hats are also manufactured and with cigars are the only manufactured articles exported. The forests are rich in mahogany and other cabinet woods. Some gold and silver are mined and other mineral deposits, such as antimony, copper, lead, etc., are worked to some degree. Capital, Tegucigalpa. Monetary unit, the silver peso.

In 1924 a reproduction of the signature of Santiago Herrera, covering four stamps, was hand-stamped in violet on stamps of the 1920 issue. This control mark was intended to prevent the use of stamps that had been stolen during a revolution. Subsequently this control was applied to stamps of the 1924 issue.

HONG KONG, A.
(hōng'kōng')

A British Crown Colony in south-east China covering 391 square miles of which 32 are on the island of Hong Kong in the Canton River, the balance on the mainland. The population is over one million. Was ceded to Great Britain in 1841. Is a center of commercial trade with China and Japan and forms an important British military and naval station.

HUNGARY, E.

(hüng'gá-ri)

A kingdom in central Europe which, prior to the World War, together with Austria, comprised the Austro-Hungarian Empire. The kingdom is at present without a sovereign, being conducted under a Regency. Admiral Horthy, pictured on the stamps of 1930, is the present Regent. The present area is 40,530 square miles, representing about one-third of the pre-war area of the kingdom. The principal occupation is agriculture, some two-thirds of the population depending on the soil for their living. The capital is Budapest. The monetary unit is the pengo.

ICELAND.

(is'land)

An independent state united with Denmark under the government of King Christian X who, as the ruling sovereign for both countries, is assigned the dual title of King of each.

From 930 until 1264 Iceland was an independent republic but by a treaty recognized the King of Norway. With the separation of Norway from Denmark, in 1814, Iceland remained under the rule of Danish kings. It is an acknowledged sovereign state and is united to Denmark only through the identity of the Sovereign. Iceland is temporarily united with Denmark in certain affairs beyond the person of the King by the Act of Union of November 30, 1918. Iceland is located in the north Atlantic Ocean. The principal industry is the fisheries which are of considerable magnitude. The capital is Reykjavik.

INDIA, A.

(in'di-ā)

An Empire in Asia comprising all of that portion of the Indian peninsula which comes under British control. The present government of India is based on various parliamentary acts. All territories which were previously under the control of the British East India Company are directly attached to the Crown of Great Britain and the King of Great Britain is also the Emperor of India. The actual governing of the Empire is through a Secretary of State for India who resides in England, assisted by a council of not less than eight or more than twelve members. At least one half of the council must be of members who have resided in India for at least ten years and who have not been absent from the country for more than five years prior to their appointment. The executive in control on the ground is the Viceroy who is appointed by the Crown, usually for an administration of five years' duration. The capital is at Delhi. There is also an Indian legislature consisting of the Viceroy and two chambers, the Council of State and the Legislative Assembly. This legislature has power (with certain restrictions) to make laws for British India. The control which the supreme government exercises over the Indian States varies considerably but they are all governed by Indian Princes, Ministers or Councils. The more important Princes are autonomous. For postal purposes the country is apparently divided into three districts or classifications; British India proper, where stamps of "India" are used, Provinces under British control, where Indian stamps surcharged with name of the province are used, and the Native or Feudatory States over which the central government exercises less control and which each issue their own postage stamps available only within the limits of their respective territories. The use of stamps of "India" is unrestricted throughout the country. The restricted uses of the other classifications of postage stamps are explained under their respective headings.

It is probable that the issues of 1876, 1877 and the re-issues of the circular stamps were made to supply the demands of philatelists more than for postal needs. They were, however, available for postage.

There exist also reprints, printed in a variety of colors, on native and European thin wove paper. Collectors are warned against official imitations, which are very numerous. They are printed on several kinds of paper and in a great variety of colors.

The overprint on Nos. 01 to 044 is handstamped and, as usual with that style of overprint, is found inverted, double, etc., etc. In this instance there is evidence that many of the varieties were deliberately made. We regard most stamps of the issue as unnecessary and speculative.

INDO-CHINA, A.
(in'dō.chi'nā)

The French possessions on the Cambodian Peninsula bordering on the South China Sea and the Gulf of Siam. The area includes the colony of Cochin China and the protectorates of Annam, Cambodia, Laos, Tonkin and the Kwang-chowan territory leased from China. With the exception of Cochin China, which is a direct colony, each protectorate is governed by a Resident Superior who in turn is responsible to the Governor General of the entire area. Cochin China is provided with a Governor. The monetary unit is the piastre which is divided into one hundred cents. Normally the piastre is worth about twenty-five cents. The capital is Hanoi.

INHAMBANE, AF.

(In'yám-bá'ná)

A district of the Province of Mozambique in Portuguese East Africa bordering on the Mozambique Channel. These possessions are divided into three districts: i.e., Mozambique Province, the territory of the Mozambique Company and the territory of the Nyassa Company. Inhambane is one of the five districts within the Mozambique Province, the other districts being Lourenço Marques, Quelimane, Tete and Mozambique. Stamps of Mozambique are now in use.

IRISH FREE STATE, E. (EIRE)
(i'rish frē stāt)

The Irish Free State, comprising all of the island of Ireland with the exception of a small area at the extreme north, is one of the five self-governing Dominions of the British Commonwealth of Nations. The State was created by the Irish Free State Act of 1922. The principal manufactures are cotton goods. Whiskey is also distilled in large quantities, the Free State boasting the largest distillery in the British Isles.

ITALY, E.

(it'á-li)

A kingdom in southern Europe occupying the Apennine peninsula which extends into the Mediterranean Sea. The total area is 119,700 square miles which is slightly larger than the State of Nevada. The country is famous as a winter resort due to its warm climate and its wonderful seashore. The principal occupation is grape culture, some twelve million acres being devoted to this project; it is estimated that from 500 to 1,000 million gallons of wine are produced annually. Other important products are oats, barley, maize and olives. There are extensive marble quarries and about three quarters of the world's supply of sulphur is mined. The capital is Rome.

100 CENTESIMI=1 LIRA.

Stamps formerly listed as Italy Nos. 1 to 16 and 231 and 232 are now listed under Sardinia.

Issued in connection with the flight from Rome to Chicago of a squadron of twenty-four seaplanes under the command of General Italo Balbo. Twenty of these machines were designated to transport mail. The stamps were divided into three sections as illustrated. The first section displays the Italian flag in the national colors and is overprinted with first four letters of the name of one of the twenty pilots. This section had no franking value but it formed an essential part of the stamp, since, without it, a letter would not have been transported. The second section bears the ordinary postage value and the third section represents the air post fee.

AEGEAN ISLANDS.

(è.jè'an i'ländz)

This is a group of islands in the Aegean Sea off the coast of Turkey. They were occupied by Italy during the Tripoli War and were ceded to Italy by Turkey in 1924 by the treaty of Lausanne. Stamps of Italy overprinted with the name of the island are in use at the post offices maintained in the various islands.

JAPAN, A.

(jā-pān')

An empire in Asia and one of the great powers of the world, comprising the entire archipelago off the coast of China, and the Korean peninsula. From the northernmost to the southernmost island, the empire extends over three thousand miles with a total area of 265,128 square miles (about the size of the State of Texas). The principal occupation is agriculture with rice as the predominant crop, there being some 500,000,000 bushels produced annually. Practically all of this is consumed within the country. The empire also boasts important manufactories which are operated along western methods, the most important being the textile and silk industries. Capital, Tokyo

KENYA AND UGANDA, AF.

(ké-nyá' & ú-gán'dá; óo-gán'dá)

(Formerly East Africa and Uganda Protectorates.)

A British colony and protectorate in East Africa lying north of Tanganyika and bordering on the Indian Ocean. Kenya, a crown colony since 1906, includes the former East Africa Protectorate which included a strip of land, ten miles wide, extending along the coast to the northern branch of the Tana River, belonging to, and leased from the Sultan of Zanzibar. With the formation of Kenya Colony from the East African Protectorate, this strip of land was proclaimed the Kenya Protectorate and is still leased from the Sultan. A section of the northern portion of Kenya, west of the Juba River, was ceded to Italy in 1925. The area of Kenya Colony is 245,000 square miles (including the territory owned by the Sultan of Zanzibar). The inland Uganda Protectorate, lying west of Kenya Colony was declared a British protectorate in 1894. The Protectorate is 94,200 square miles in area. The capital of the Colony is Nairobi, and of the Protectorate, Entebbe. The monetary unit is the East African shilling which is divided into one hundred cents. The normal value of the shilling is twenty to the British pound.

KIAUCHAU, A.

(jyon'jō')

Kiauchau Bay, a large inlet on the south side of the Promontory of Shantung in China was seized in 1897 by the German Imperial Fleet, nominally to secure reparation for the murder of two German missionaries. In the negotiations that followed it was arranged that the bay and the land on both sides should be leased to Germany for 99 years. During the lease Germany was to exercise all rights of territorial sovereignty. In 1914 Kiauchau was occupied by Japan but in recent negotiations it has reverted to China, only to be re-occupied during the present hostilities.

KIONGA, AF.

(kyōng'gā)

Formerly a portion of German East Africa. During the World War the "Kionga Triangle" was occupied by Portuguese Colonial troops, and by the Treaty of Versailles was awarded to Portugal as the rightful owner. The Kionga Triangle, the territory south of the Rovuma River and bordering on Lake Nyasa, is now part of Portuguese East Africa (Mozambique).

.KUWAIT, A.

(koo-wit' ; ko-wat')

A Sultanate under British influence, lying at the head of the Persian Gulf.

There was a first or trial setting of the overprint with the word "Koweit". Twenty-four sets of regular and official stamps were printed with this spelling. Copies have reached the stamp market and it is believed they were distributed with the stamps having the corrected spelling.

LATAKIA, A.

(lä'tä-kä'a)

A division of Syria which, in 1924, became an independent state, though still administered by French mandate, under the name of Alaouites. In 1930 the name of the state was officially changed to Latakia. Although having a separate administration, it is technically a part of the Syrian Republic. See Alaouites.

In the redrawn design the wheat heads are thicker, the ornament at lower left has five points instead of four, and there are minor changes in other parts of the design.

The sheets of this and subsequent issues were usually divided in half by a single line of perforation gauging 10. Thus stamps are found with this perforation on one side.

LATAKIA, A.

(lä'tä.kē'ä)

A division of Syria which, in 1924, became an independent state, though still administered by French mandate, under the name of Alaouites. In 1930 the name of the state was officially changed to Latakia. Although having a separate administration, it is technically a part of the Syrian Republic. See Alaouites.

In the redrawn design the wheat heads are thicker, the ornament at lower left has five points instead of four, and there are minor changes in other parts of the design.

The sheets of this and subsequent issues were usually divided in half by a single line of perforation gauging 10. Thus stamps are found with this perforation on one side.

LEEWARD ISLANDS, W. I.

(lě'wěrd i'ländz)

British colonial possessions in the West Indies comprising most of the Leeward group. The group is divided into five presidencies as follows: Antigua (with Barbuda and Redonda), Dominica, Montserrat, St. Christopher (or St. Kitts) with Nevis and Anguilla, and the British Virgin Islands. Each presidency issues its own postage stamps which may be used from points within their own territories. The stamps inscribed Leeward Islands are a general issue of the colony. Capital, St. John. Total area, 716 square miles. British currency is in use.

LIBERIA, AF.

(li-bēr'ī-ā)

A Republic on the West Coast of Africa north of the Equator, lying between the French Ivory Coast Colony and Sierra Leone. The country was founded by several colonization societies to provide a home for freed slaves of America. It was constituted as the Free and Independent Republic of Liberia in 1847 and received prompt recognition by France and Great Britain. Other powers ultimately accorded recognition. This section of Africa was known as the "Grains Coast" to old navigators because of the trade in "Grains of Paradise", a variety of pepper. As early as 1364 traders imported the "grains" from Africa although such importation was forbidden by the Portuguese who held a monopoly on importing pepper from India. The "Grains of Paradise", known also as "Guinea Grains", and "Alligator Pepper", differ somewhat from regular black pepper in size and shape. The plant is really a species of the ginger family but its taste is pungent like that of black pepper from India. Liberia is rich in natural resources but as yet is in almost a complete state of undevelopment. One project, The Firestone Tire and Rubber Company's rubber plantation, has reached considerable proportions. Capital, Monrovia.

LIBIA, AF.

(Libya)

The Italian possessions in Northern Africa bordering on the Mediterranean Sea. For administrative purposes the territory is divided into four districts, Tripoli, Misurata, Benghazi and Derna, and into a military territory in the south. In 1835 Tripoli was proclaimed a
Turkish Vilayet but in 1911 Italy annexed this country as the outcome of a quarrel with Turkey. By vigorous colonization methods, the boundaries were extended in all directions so that the present area of Italian Libya is somewhat over 633,000 square miles. This is comparable to the area of the entire Atlantic seaboard of the United States of America from Maine to Florida and as far west as to include
Ohio.

LIECHTENSTEIN, E.

(liK'tën-shtin)

A sovereign principality in central Europe lying somewhat south of Lake Constance between Germany and Switzerland. The principality is some 64 square miles in area and is composed of two countries, Schellenberg and Vaduz. These were formerly immediate fiefs of the Roman Empire, but, in 1699 came into the possession of the House of Liechtenstein and in 1719 Emperor Charles VI constituted them as the Principality of Liechtenstein. The country is mainly agricultural. Capital, Vaduz.

LITHUANIA, E.

(Lith'ō-ā'ni-ā)
(Lietuva)

A Republic in northern Europe bordering on the Baltic Sea. Was formerly a Grand Duchy and under the reign of Vytautas (1392-1430) her frontiers extended from the Baltic to the Black Sea. Following the death of Vytautas, Lithuania gradually came under Polish influence and in 1569 united with the latter country. At the end of the 18th century Poland fell under Russian rule along with greater Lithuania. Lithuania Minor was annexed by Prussia. Following the World War Lithuania declared her independence, in 1918, and recognition was accorded by the great powers on December 20, 1922. Area, 21,680 square miles or, roughly, the size of the State of West Virginia. Capital, Kaunas.

Nos. 1 to 26 were printed in sheets of 20 (5x4) which were imperforate at the outer sides, so that only six stamps in each sheet were fully perforated. Our prices are for the stamps partly imperforate. The stamps fully perforated sell for about double these prices. There was also a printing of Nos. 19 to 26 in a sheet of 100, composed of blocks of 20 of each stamp. Pairs or blocks with different values set apart sell for considerably more than the prices for the stamps singly.

LUBECK, E.
(lü'bëk)

A state and city of Germany situated on an arm of the Baltic between Holstein and Mecklenburg. It consists of the city of Lübeck, town of Travemünden and 49 villages and country districts, being approximately 115 square miles in area. Formerly Lübeck was a city in the Hanseatic League and, until the suppression of its political individuality under the Nazi regime, was designated as "Freie und Hansestadt Lübeck".

MADAGASCAR, AF.

A French island colony off the coast of southeastern Africa. French claims in the island were recognized by Great Britain in 1890, but it was not until 1895 that the native Queen recognized and accepted the French Protectorate, and then only after her capital had been occupied by the French military forces. In January of 1896 Madagascar became a French possession and in August of the same year was declared a French Colony. The Madagascar colony now administers the former protectorates of Anjouan, Grande-Comore, Mayotte, Diégo Suarez, Nossi-Bé and Sainte Marie de Madagascar. Madagascar is one of the world's largest islands, being approximately 240,000 square miles in area. Capital, Antananarivo.

It is claimed that at various times during the year 1904 there was a shortage of stamps at several places in Madagascar. To meet this shortage, stamps of 10c, 20c, 30c and 50c of Madagascar, type A7 and Diego Suarez, type A11, were cut in half and, after being affixed to letters, handstamped "Affranchissement exceptionnel - (faute de timbres)" and other inscriptions of similar import. We believe these provisionals were entirely speculative and unnecessary.

The 5r black formerly listed is not believed to exist as a genuinely imperforate original.

Nos. 2 to 5 together with stamps of 5, 10 and 25 reis, were reprinted in 1886 on stout white paper, ungummed. They were again reprinted in 1905, on ordinary white paper with shiny white gum. The latter reprints have the overprint with the wide "D" and "R" of type A3.

1868-70 Perf. 12½.

FIVE REIS:

Type I. The "5" at upper right is 1½mm. from the end of the label.

Type II. The "5" is 1mm. from the end of the label.

MALDIVE ISLANDS, A.

(māl'div i'lāndz)

A British insular possession lying in the Indian Ocean 400 miles southwest of Ceylon to which colony it is attached for administrative purposes. It is a dependency governed by an elected Sultan and pays an annual tribute to Ceylon. The group consists of 13 islets of coral formation with a total area of 115 square miles. The capital is Malé. The residents are civilized and are excellent navigators.

MALTA, E.

(mól'tá ; mól'-)

A British Colony consisting of the islands of Malta, Gozo and Comino in the Mediterranean Sea off the coast of Sicily. Under the "Malta Constitution Letters Patent", of 1921, a form of self-government was inaugurated which controlled local affairs. Under Letters Patent of 1936 certain further changes were made. The Colony is now governed by a Governor and an Executive Council of eight members. The islands are an important port of call and are the British Naval Base for repairs of the Mediterranean fleet. Area 122 square miles. Capital, Valletta.

MARIANA ISLANDS, O.

(mä're-ä'näs i'ländz)

A group of islands in the west Pacific Ocean lying about 1,500 miles east of the Philippines. Until 1899 they were a Spanish possession but in that year all except Guam were ceded to Germany. Following the World War the islands possessed by Germany were mandated to Japan. Stamps of Japan are now in use.

MARIENWERDER, E.

(mä-rë'çh-vër'der)

A district of Germany which, prior to the World War, was a district of West Prussia. By the Versailles Treaty the greater portion of West Prussia was ceded to Poland but the district of Marienwerder was allowed a plebiscite which was held in 1920, and resulted in favor of Germany.

Trial impressions were made in red, green and lilac, and with 2½ mm. instead of 3 mm. space between the lines of the overprint. These were printed on the 75pf. and 80pf. The 1 mark was overprinted with the same words in three lines of large sans serif capitals. All these things are essays. Some of them were passed through the post, apparently with speculative intent.

MARTINIQUE, W. I. (mär'ti-nēk')

A French Colony in the West Indies consisting of a small mountainous island about forty-nine miles long and thirteen miles wide. A cluster of volcanic mountains rises in the north which is connected by a range of lower mountains with a similar group of volcanoes in the south. The northern group of volcanoes is dominated by the notorious Mt. Pelée which broke forth in an appalling eruption in May, 1902. Though it is estimated over 40,000 persons were killed by this eruption, the colony's recovery was rapid and normal business conditions were resumed almost immediately. Capital, Fort-de-France.

MAURITANIA, AF.

(mô'ri-tâ'ni-â)

A French Colony in northwestern Africa bordering on the Atlantic Ocean. The Colony, which was so designated in 1921, includes several districts of French West Africa territory, and its border limits are not definitely fixed. The area is variously estimated at from 154,000 to 347,000 square miles. Capital, St. Louis.

MAURITIUS, AF.

(mō-rish'li-ūs; -rish'ūs)

A British island colony lying in the Indian Ocean 550 miles east of Madagascar. Was first discovered by the Portuguese in the 16th century. Was settled by the Dutch who abandoned the settlement in 1710. It was subsequently occupied by the French who named it Isle de France. Was occupied by the British in 1810, and formally ceded to Great Britain in 1814. The British colony of Mauritius was one of the earliest countries to issue postage stamps, and the first issue, inscribed "Post Office" by mistake, ranks among the classic stamps of philately. Capital, Port Louis.

12 PENCE 1 SHILLING,
100 CENIS 1 RUPEE.

NOTE:

Prices quoted on Nos. 1 to 12 are for stamps without defects and with 15% margins on all sides. Inferior specimens sell for much lower prices, while superb ones command large premiums.

These stamps were printed in sheets of twelve, four rows of three, and all differ in minor details. The "PENOE" error was No. 7 on the plate. They were in use until 1859. Early impressions show the full background of diagonal and vertical lines; as the plate became worn the vertical lines disappeared, giving the intermediate impressions, and, finally, the lines of the background disappeared almost entirely. The paper of the early impressions is usually rather thick, that of the worn impressions is usually thin.

MAYOTTE, AF.

(mä'yôt')

The third largest of the Comoro Islands, French dependencies which lie in the Mozambique Channel midway between Madagascar and Mozambique. Since 1914 the entire archipelago has become a colony attached to the government of Madagascar and is officially designated the "Province of Mayotte and Dependencies."

MEMEL, E.

(mä'mäl)

A district of 1100 square miles bordering on the Baltic Sea, including at the mouth of the river Neiman, the City of Memel, founded in the thirteenth century by Teutonic Knights, later a member of the Hanseatic League. Following the World War this territory was detached from Germany and by the Treaty of Versailles assigned to the governance of a commission of the Allied and Associated Powers (not the League of Nations), who administered it until January, 1923 when it was forcibly occupied by Lithuania. In 1924 Memel became incorporated as a semi-autonomous district of Lithuania with the approval of the Allied Powers and the League of Nations. In March, 1939 Memel was returned to the German Reich by a treaty with Lithuania.

MEXICO, N. A.
(mèk'si-kō)

A Republic in North America, lying south of the United States. Area about 767,000 square miles which approximates one-third the area of the United States. The country is mountainous and because of the high elevations three distinct zones of temperatures are noted, with differences between the cold zone and the hot zone ranging as high as 90 degrees at times. Agriculture is practiced but methods of cultivation are extremely primitive. An important article of commerce is the fiber of the agave plant known as sisal or henequen. Chicle is also produced and exported in large quantities. Mexico is extremely wealthy in natural resources and of these mineral deposits are most important. Gold is produced in large quantities and the country leads the world in silver production. Copper, anti-mony, mercury, etc., are also mined extensively and Mexico ranks among the leading countries of the world in the production of petroleum. Capital, City of Mexico. Monetary unit, the peso.

It is stated that, in parts of Mexico occupied by the revolutionary forces, instructions were given to apply a distinguishing overprint to all stamps found in the post offices. This overprint was usually some arrangement or abbreviation of the words "Gobierno Constitucionalista". We list such overprints as were specially authorized or were in general use in large sections of the country. There were numerous other handstamped overprints each of which was used in one town or locality. At the best they were merely control marks and of no more significance to general collectors than similar control marks used in Ecuador in 1902-07. The fact that they were often struck in an unnecessary variety of colors and positions suggests the influence of philatelists. Eventually the use of stamps bearing any overprints other than those we list was forbidden. For these reasons we have decided to omit them from the Catalogue.

Many of the foregoing stamps exist with the "G. P. D. E. M." overprint printed in other colors than those listed. These "trial color" stamps were not regularly on sale at post offices but were available for postage and used copies are known.

There appears to have been speculation in Nos. 516, 517, 520, 528, 539, 540, 543, 566 and 567. A small quantity of each of these stamps was sold at post offices but subsequently they could only be obtained from officials or their agents at advanced prices.

On May 3rd, 1929, certain proofs or essays were sold at the post office in the City of Mexico. They were printed in different colors from those of the regularly issued stamps. There were seven varieties perforated and two imperforate and a total of 255 copies. They were sold with the understanding that they were for collections but the buyers used the majority of them on air mail sent out that day.

It was obligatory to add a stamp of type PT1 to the regular postage on every article of domestic mail matter. The money obtained from this source formed a fund to combat a plague of locusts.

In 1931 No. RA1 was discontinued as a Postal Tax stamp. It was subsequently used for the payment of the postage on drop letters (announcement cards and unsealed circulars) to be delivered in the city of cancellation.

PROVISIONAL ISSUES.

During the struggle led by Juarez to expel the Emperor Maximilian, installed June, 1864 by Napoleon III and French troops, a number of towns when free of Imperial forces issued Provisional postage stamps. Maximilian was captured and executed June 19, 1867, but provisional issues continued current for a time pending re-establishment of Republican Government.

MODENA, E.

(mò'dā-nā)

The ancient Duchy of Modena in northern Italy was named from its capital city. In 1852, when the first stamps were issued, it was ruled over by Duke Francis V of the House of Austria-Este. In June, 1859, he was overthrown and Modena was annexed to the Kingdom of Sardinia which, on March 17, 1861, became the Kingdom of Italy. The stamps of Modena were superseded by those of Sardinia in February, 1860.

MONGOLIA, A.

(mōng-gō'li-á)

A vast inland territory which is considered a northern dependency of China. In area, about 1,800,000 square miles. The area includes the great Gobi Desert which extends into Turkestan. Inhabitants are mostly Mongols and Kalmucks, who range the desert with sheep and cattle. The chief town of the region is Ulan Bator Khoto, formerly called "Urga," near the Siberian frontier. Inner Mongolia, with about a third of the total area is controlled by Japan; Outer Mongolia is under the influence of U. S. S. R. and has the Soviet form of government. Postage stamps are produced in Moscow.

There were various settings and printings of this overprint, some of which were made after 1893. Though they were available for postage they were probably made to supply a philatelic demand rather than a postal need.

Nos. 8 to 17 were issued in commemoration of the fourth centenary of the introduction of printing into Montenegro.

There were two settings of this overprint, one of which contained four varieties of the word "УСТАВ" and two errors of spelling: "Constuttion" and "Constitution". Nearly all values exist with double, inverted and misplaced overprint. There are also numerous errors in the color of the overprint. Most of these probably were not sold at the time of issue but came from the stock of remainders.

MONTERRAT, W. I.
(mōnt'sē-rāt')

A British island possession in the West Indies being one of the five presidencies of the Leeward Islands Colony. (See Leeward Islands.) The island takes its name from the Spanish, meaning serrated mountain, because of the jagged, or serrated, formation of the predominating mountain.

Montserrat stamps were discontinued in 1890 and replaced by those of Leeward Islands. The separate issues were resumed in 1902, and now both are used concurrently.

This space may be used for tipping in possible listings of new issues from Scott's Monthly Journal

MOROCCO, AF.

(mô-rôk'ô)

The best authorities are now agreed that stamps of the above design were not a government issue but were used by local post to frank mail to the nearest French post office.

For other stamps, formerly listed under Morocco, see French Offices in Morocco.

MOZAMBIQUE, AF.

(mô'zâm-bêk')

Mozambique or Portuguese East Africa is a Portuguese colony bordering on the Mozambique Channel. The colony is divided into two administrative districts, the territory of the Mozambique Company with 60,000 square miles, and the Province of Mozambique administered by the State, with about 240,000 square miles. The latter is divided into seven districts as follows: Lourenço Marques, Inhambane, Quelimane, Tete, Mozambique, Zambezia and Nyassa. All have at various times issued individual postage stamps but those inscribed Mozambique are in general use at the present time.

NEPAL, A.

(nā-pōl')

An independent kingdom in the Himalayan Mountains lying between British India and Tibet. While the country is a monarchy, with a living sovereign, all power is vested in the prime minister who, besides his native titles of rank, is a general in the British Army. According to a treaty of 1923, the British and the Nepalese governments acknowledged each other's independence both internal and external.

NETHERLANDS, E.

(nèth'èr-lândz)
(Holland)

A kingdom in northwestern Europe, bordering on the North Sea. In area the country is 13,200 square miles, being somewhat larger than the State of Maryland. Fully one-quarter of the land is below sea-level, protected by some fifteen hundred miles of dikes. At present another extensive project is under way which, when completed, will add some 900 square miles of arable land. Agriculture is the principal occupation and in careful, intensive working of the land the Netherlanders have no equal. Chief products are grain, potatoes, sugar - beets, flax and table vegetables. Large quantities of bulbs are exported and large areas are also devoted to flower culture. Fully one-third of the country is devoted to pasture for the finest dairy cattle. Capitals, Amsterdam (constitutional); The Hague (legislative).

Stamps of this and subsequent issues exist with a special perforation, intended to adapt them for use in vending and affixing machines. This perforation is applied to the narrower sides of the stamps. It is usually termed the "interrupted" or "syncopated" perforation and consists of groups of four holes, separated by blank spaces equal in width to two or three holes. This type of perforation on all four sides exists on many stamps. There is still another variation, consisting of the omission of one perforation at either side of the top and bottom of each stamp.

Nevis stamps were discontinued in 1890 and replaced by those of the Leeward Islands.

In 1903 a series of stamps inscribed ST. KITTS-NEVIS was issued for use in the two islands. These stamps are listed under the letter S and are used concurrently with those of the Leeward Islands.

NEW BRITAIN, O.
(nū'brit'n)

Formerly a part of German New Guinea. The island Neu-Pommern was captured during the World War by Australian troops and named New Britain. Following the war, was mandated to Australia and designated a part of the Mandated Territory of New Guinea. (See German New Guinea and New Guinea.)

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. A.

(nū'brānz'wīk)

A province in eastern Canada, bordering on the Bay of Fundy and the Gulf of St. Lawrence. At one time was a part of Nova Scotia but became a separate province in 1784. In 1867 New Brunswick joined the Canadian Confederation and since that time the postage stamps of Canada have been used. (See Canada.)

NEW CALEDONIA, O.

(nū'kāl'ê-dō'nī.â)

A French colony in the South Pacific Ocean comprising one of the larger islands of the Oceania group and lying just north of the Tropic of Capricorn. Area, 8,450 square miles, being approximately the same size as the State of New Jersey. The island is exceptionally rich in many minerals, the nickel deposits being of especial value, for the metal found is free of arsenic. Capital, Nouméa. French currency is used.

NEWFOUNDLAND, N. A.
(nū'fūn (d) lānd' ; nū'fūnd.lānd' ;

From 1855 to 1933 one of the self-governing Dominions of the British Empire, consisting of a large island in the north Atlantic Ocean, and Labrador, a portion of the mainland of the North American continent. Newfoundland has now assumed the status of a Crown Colony. Total area, including Labrador is 154,000 square miles, or about as large as the State of California. The country is largely agricultural but the principal occupation is fishing, the total catch being valued at about $10,000,000 annually. It is estimated that the annual output of dried codfish is over 68,000 tons. The annual catch of lobsters is equally impressive, reaching a total of 2,422,080 quintals in 1922, but the industry was rapidly exterminating these crustaceans which resulted in the government declaring a closed season from 1925 to 1928. The annual catch of sea fish is well over 170,000. In 1933, Newfoundland relinquished Dominion rights until such time as her financial difficulties could be solved and is now governed by 6 Commissioners, three of whom are appointed by the Crown and three locally. Capital St. John's.

1920-31 Types of 1928 Issue.

Re-engraved.

1c. On No. 145 the lines of the engraving are thinner and the impression is clearer than on No. 162. On the former "C. BAULD" is above "C. NORMAN". On the latter these words are transposed.

2c. On the 1928 stamp the "D" of "NEWFOUNDLAND" is 1mm. from the scroll at the right; the flag at the stern is lower than the top of the boat davit. On the 1929 stamp the "D" is 1/4 mm. from the scroll and the flag rises above the davits.

3c. On the 1928 stamp the pearls at the top of the crown, the jewels of the head band and the pillars at right and left of the portrait are all unshaded. On the re-engraved stamp there are small curved lines inside the pearls, the jewels of the head band are in solid color, and the pillars have vertical shading lines. On the 1928 stamps the tablets with "THREE" and "CENTS" have a background of crossed lines (vertical and horizontal). On the 1929 stamp the background is of horizontal lines only.

4c. On the 1928 stamp the figures "4" have shading of horizontal and diagonal crossed lines. There are six circles at each side of the portrait.

On the 1929 stamp the "4s" have shading of horizontal lines only. There are five roses at each side of the portrait.

5c. The crossbars of the telegraph pole touch the frame at the left on the 1929 stamp but just clear it on the 1928 stamp. In the 1928 issue the foliate ornaments beside and below the figures "5" end in small scrolls and a small spur. These spurs are omitted on the 1929 stamp.

6c. On the re-engraved stamp the columns at right and left of the picture have heavy wavy outlines on the inner sides. There is no period after "JOHNS". The numerals in the lower corners are 1 1/2 mm. wide instead of 1 1/4 mm.

8c. The impression of the 1928 stamp is clear, that of 1931 is slightly blurred. The 1928 stamp has three horizontal lines above "EIGHT CENTS" and four berries on the laurel branch at the right side. On the 1931 stamp there are two horizontal lines and three berries.

10c. On the re-engraved stamp there is no period after "ST. JOHN'S". The letters of "TEN CENTS" are slightly larger and the numerals "10" slightly smaller than in 1928. Inside the "0" of "10" at the right there are two vertical lines instead of three. The clouds are fainter in 1929 and the cross upheld by the figure on the monument is more distinct. On the 1928 stamp the torch at the left side terminates in a single tongue of flame. On the 1929-30 stamp it terminates in two tongues.

15c. On the 1928 stamp the "N" of "NEWFOUNDLAND" is 1 1/2 mm. from the left frame, the "L" of "LEAVING" is under the first "A" of "AIRPLANE" and the apostrophe in "JOHN'S" breaks the first line above it.

On the 1929 stamp the "N" of "NEWFOUNDLAND" is 1 mm. from the left frame, the "L" of "LEAVING" is below the "T" of "FIRST" and the apostrophe in "JOHN'S" does not touch the line above it.

20c. On the 1928 stamp the points of the "W" of "NEWFOUNDLAND" are truncated. The "O" is wide and nearly round. The columns that form the sides of the frame have a shading of evenly spaced horizontal lines at their inner sides.

On the 1929-31 stamp the points of the "W" form sharp angles. The "O" is narrow and has a small opening. Many lines have been added to the shading on the inner sides of the columns making it almost solid.

30c. 1928 stamp. Size 19 1/2 x 24 mm. At the outer side of the right column there are three strong and two faint vertical lines. Faint period after "FALLS".

1931 stamp. Size 19 x 25 mm. At the outer side of the right column there are two strong vertical lines and a fragment of the lower end of a faint one. Clear period after "FALLS". A great many of the small lines of the design have been deepened making the whole stamp appear darker.

NEW HEBRIDES, O.

(nū' hēb'ri.dēz)

A group of South Pacific Islands lying north of New Caledonia. The government is a Condominium, the islands being administered jointly by Great Britain and France. Following the agreement of these two powers on October 20, 1906, both issued postage stamps, the British issues being the stamps of Fiji overprinted and the French issues those of New Caledonia similarly overprinted. In 1911 a joint issue of postage stamps was made in which the coats of arms of both countries were incorporated in the design. The British issues bore the coat of arms of Great Britain on the right and the value expressed in British currency while on the French issues the position of the coats of arms was reversed and the value expressed in French currency. This resulted in some confusion when the value of the French franc decreased following the World War, but the situation was corrected by arranging that both series of stamps be sold for their value as expressed in French currency. Total area, 5,700 square miles.

NEW REPUBLIC, AF.

(nū' ré-pūb'lik)

A former republic in South Africa. Was created in 1884 by Boer adventurers from Transvaal who proclaimed Kinizulu King of Zululand and claimed as their reward a large tract of country as their own which they called New Republic. This area was excepted when Great Britain annexed Zululand in 1887, but New Republic became a part of Transvaal in 1888 and, of course, is now included in the Union of South Africa.

NEW SOUTH WALES, O.

(nū' south wälz)

One of the six former separate British colonies which joined together on January 1, 1901, to form the present Commonwealth of Australia. New South Wales lies on the southeast coast of Australia and is 309,400 square miles in area, which is approximately equal to the combined areas of the States of Texas and Oklahoma.

The official stamps became obsolete on December 31, 1894. In August, 1895, sets of 32 varieties of "O. S." stamps, together with some envelopes and postal cards, were placed on sale at the Sydney post office at £2 per set. These sets contained most of the varieties listed above and a few which are not known in the original issues. An obliteration consisting of the letters G. P. O. or N. S. W. in three concentric ovals was lightly applied to the center of each block of four stamps. It is understood that the earlier stamps and many of the overprints were reprinted to make up these sets.

NEW ZEALAND, O.

(nū' zē'lānd)

One of the five self-governing Dominions of the British Commonwealth of Nations, in the South Pacific Ocean. The Kermadec and Cook Islands, as well as several lesser groups, are also attached to New Zealand for administrative purposes. Area, 103,800 square miles, being approximately the size of the State of Colorado. New Zealand was discovered by Tasman and later explored by Cook. It became a British possession in 1840, when the native Maori chiefs ceded sovereignty to Great Britain. Was constituted a Dominion on September 26, 1907.

The margins of the sheets are watermarked "NEW ZEALAND POSTAGE" and parts of the letters of these words are frequently found on the stamps. It occasionally happens that a stamp shows no watermark whatever.

In 1907 a quantity of the 1p carmine were overprinted "King Edward VII Land" and taken on an expedition to the Antarctic regions. As the only place where these stamps could be used was an alleged post-office, established principally to give color to their issue, and as they were never sold to the public we do not catalogue them.

Similar remarks will apply to the 1p carmine overprinted "Victoria Land".

The engraved stamps have a background of geometric lathe-work; the typographed stamps have a background of crossed dotted lines.

Type A43 has three diamonds at each side of the crown, type A46 has two, and type A47 has one.

In 1916 the ½, 2, 3 and 6p of the 1915-16 issue and the 8p of the 1909 issue were printed on paper intended for the long rectangular stamps of the 1902-07 issue. In this paper the watermarks are set wide apart, so that the smaller stamps often show only a small part of the watermark or miss it altogether.

POSTAL-FISCAL STAMPS.

In 1881 fiscal stamps of New Zealand of denominations over one shilling were made acceptable for postal duty. Thus they actually became regular postage stamps, but for convenience we group separately such varieties as are known to have been in general use.

NICARAGUA, C. A.

(nik'á-rík'wá)

A republic in Central America lying between Honduras and Costa Rica, and extending from the Caribbean Sea to the Pacific Ocean. Running through the country from north to south is the Cordillera range of mountains which include many volcanic peaks, the best known of which is Mt. Momotombo. No eruptions of any consequence are on record although in 1931 the country was visited by a violent earthquake which took heavy toll of life. Mt. Momotombo is pictured on the early issues of postage stamps and it is stated that these stamps were instrumental in locating the present Isthmian Canal at Panama instead of through Nicaragua. Lake Nicaragua, in the western part of the country, presents excellent possibilities for the construction of a canal and it is more than probable that an inter ocean waterway will some day be constructed here. Area, 51,660 square miles, or about the size of the State of North Carolina. Capital, Managua.

The issues of 1890 to 1899 inclusive were printed by the Hamilton Bank Note Co., New York, to the order of N. F. Seebeck who held a contract for stamps with the Government of Nicaragua. This contract gave the right to make reprints of the stamps and such were subsequently made of the issues of 1896, 1897 and 1898, postage, postage due and official stamps, as specified in the notes in italic type following those issues.

Commemorative of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus.

Stamps of the 1892 design were printed in other colors than those listed above and overprinted "Telegrafos". The so-called errors, 1c blue, 10c orange, 20c slate, 50c plum and 2p vermilion are merely telegraph stamps which have not received the overprint.

The paper of Nos. 109a to 109l is slightly thicker and more opaque than that of Nos. 81 to 89 and 90 to 98. The 5c and 10c also exist on very thin, semi-transparent paper.

Reprints of Nos. 81 to 109l are on thick, porous paper, with and without watermark. The paper of the originals is thinner.

Specialists now claim the existence of reprints of Nos. 81 to 89 and 90 to 98 on thin paper, but with shades differing slightly from those of the originals.

In 1904 a series with surcharge as above, except that "Centavo" was spelled out in full, was made to fill a dealer's order. So far as we are aware, none of them were ever used postally. We therefore omit them. About the same time the 2c vermilion of the 1899 issue was surcharged "1 cent" and "1901" "1902" or "1904" in blue. This also was done to fill a dealer's order and none of the stamps were regularly issued or used.

Commemorative of the tenth anniversary of the first election of President Zelaya.

The 1c orange yellow and black, 2c ultramarine and black, 5c lake and black and 10c emerald green and black, so-called errors of color, were never issued, but are from sample sheets sold by an official to stamp dealers. It is stated that the intention was to overprint these stamps for official use but it was never carried out.

In 1934 various postage, semi-postal, air-post and official stamps of current issues were overprinted with facsimile signatures of the Minister of Public Works and the Postmaster-General. As these overprints do not in any way alter the value or use of the stamp we consider them merely control marks and not worthy of listing.

These surcharges are set up to cover twenty-five stamps. Some of the settings have bars or pieces of fancy border type below "OFICIAL". There are five varieties on No. O150, three on No. O151, and one each on Nos. O152, O153 and O154.

In 1904 No. O151 was reprinted to fill a dealer's order. This printing lacks the small figure at the upper right. It includes the variety "OFICILA". At the same time the same setting was printed in carmine on official stamps of 1900, 1c on 10c violet and 2c on 1p ultramarine. Also the 1, 2 and 5 pesos official stamps of 1900 were surcharged with new values and the dates 1901 or 1902 in various colors, inverted, etc. It is doubtful if any of these varieties were ever in Nicaragua and certain that none of them ever did legitimate postal duty.

"R de C" signifies "Reconstruccion de Comunicaciones." The stamps are intended to provide a fund for rebuilding the General Post Office which was burned in April, 1921. One stamp must be used on each letter or parcel, in addition to the regular postage. In the setting of one hundred there are five stamps with antique "C" and twenty-one with "R" and "C" smaller than in the illustration. One or more stamps in the setting have a dotted bar, as illustrated over No. 389, instead of the double bar.

The use of the "R de C" stamps for the payment of regular postage is not permitted.

CABO GRACIAS A DIOS.

(kä'bõ grä'sé-äs ä dyõs')

A cape and seaport town in the extreme northeast of Nicaragua. The name was coined by Spanish explorers who had great difficulty finding a landing place along the Nicaraguan coast and when eventually locating this harbor expressed their relief by designating the point "Cape Thanks to God". Special postage stamps came into use for the same reasons as the Zelaya issues. (See Zelaya.)

The stamps of Niger Coast Protectorate were superseded in Jan., 1900, by those of Northern and Southern Nigeria.

NIGERIA, AF.

(ni-jër'l-d)

A British Crown Colony on the west coast of Africa bordering on the Gulf of Guinea. This colony was formed on January 1, 1914, from what had formerly been the Protectorate of Northern Nigeria and Southern Nigeria. The mandated territory of Cameroons (British) is also attached to Nigeria for administrative purposes. Area, 336,770 square miles or approximately as large as the combined areas of the States of Texas and Oklahoma. The chief exports are palm kernels, palm oil, nuts, cocoa, tin ore and hides and skins. Capital, Lagos. (See Niger Coast Protectorate, Northern Nigeria, Southern Nigeria and Lagos.)

NIGER, AF.

(ni'jēr)

An inland French colony in northern Africa lying directly north of Nigeria (British). Originally was a military territory but was placed under civil administration in 1920 and formed into a colony in 1922. The country may be divided into three zones; the northern which is largely desolate country, the central zone which is wooded and the southern zone which is richly wooded and abounding in cattle. Total area, 499,410 square miles, being larger than the combined areas of the States of Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas and Minnesota. Capital, Niamey. French currency is used.

NORTH BORNEO, O.

(nôth bôr'nê-ô)

A British Protectorate on the northern portion of the island of Borneo (East Indies). The country is under the jurisdiction of the British North Borneo Company which operates under grants from the Sultans of Brunei and Sulu and is a Royal Chartered Company. In 1888 proclaimed a formal protectorate over the State of North Borneo. In December, 1904, an arrangement was made with Sarawak whereby the latter received an area of about 200 square miles of land in exchange for the rights over coal mines in Brunei Bay. Area, 31,000 square miles or approximately the size of the State of Maine. Capital, Jesselton. (See Labuan.)

100 CENTS=1 DOLLAR.

Quantities of the stamps of North Borneo have been cancelled "to order" with an oval of bars. Prices given for used stamps are for those with this form of cancellation. Stamps with dated town cancellations sell for much higher prices.

25c. The letters of "BRITISH NORTH BORNEO" are 2mm. high instead of 1 1/2mm.

50c. The club of the native at left does not touch the frame. The "0's of "50" are flat at top and bottom instead of being oval.

$1.00. The spear of the native at right does not touch the frame. There are 14 pearls at each side of the frame instead of 13.

$2.00. "BRITISH" is 11mm. long instead of 12mm. There are only six oars at the side of the dhow.

NORTH INGERMANLAND, E.

(north in'gêr-mân-lâud')

The territory in Northern Russia lying between the River Neva and Finland. In 1920 the residents of this territory revolted from Russian rule and set up a provisional government. The new State existed only a short period as the revolution was quickly quelled by Soviet troops.

NORTH WEST PACIFIC ISLANDS, O.

(nôrth wêst pâ-sîf'ik î'lândz)

Stamps of Australia were overprinted thus for use in the former German possessions of Nauru and German New Guinea which Australian troops had captured. Following the League of Nations' decision which placed these territories under mandate to Australia, these provisional issues were discontinued. (See German New Guinea, New Britain, Nauru and New Guinea).

12 PENCE=1 SHILLING.

Stamps of Australian Commonwealth Overprinted N. W. PACIFIC ISLANDS

There are two varieties of the letter "S" in the overprint: variety a, normal "S"; variety b, "S" with small head and long bottom stroke. Three combinations of these letters are found in the word "Islands": I, both are variety a; II, varieties b and a; III, both are variety b.

OBOCK, AF.

(ō'hōk')

Obock was the point of entrance from which the present French Somaliland was formed. It is located in Eastern Africa on the Gulf of Aden directly opposite from Aden. The port of Obock was acquired by the French in 1862 but was not actively occupied until 1884 when Sagallo and Tadjoura were ceded to the French. In 1888 Djibouti was made into a port and the seat of government was then moved from Obock to the latter city, and postage stamps were issued under the name Djibouti. In 1902 the name Somali Coast was adopted on the postage stamps. (See Somali Coast.)

OLTRE GIUBA, AF.

(ol'trà joo'bä)

(Italian Jubaland)

The land west of the Juba River which was ceded by Great Britain to Italy in 1924. The area (about 35,000 square miles), is made up of a strip of land of from 50 to 100 miles wide paralleling the river. Upon ratification of the treaty which was effected in 1925, postage stamps were issued bearing the overprint "Oltre Giuba" (Trans-Juba). In 1926 a series of stamps was issued which picture an accurate map of the territory of Oltre Giuba. In 1926 Oltre Giuba was incorporated with Italian Somaliland and stamps of the latter have since been used.

The stamps of Orange River Colony have been superseded by those of the Union of South Africa.

There were several settings of these surcharges, some of which are scarcer than others. In the first setting the periods were on a line with the bottoms of the letters "V. R. I." In the subsequent settings the normal position of the periods was above the line of the letters, though there were many variations in the positions of one or more of them.

The 1p brown and 1sh orange of the 1865 issue were surcharged in error but were not regularly issued, though a few copies got out in some way.

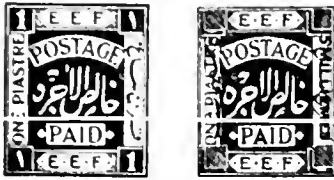

PALESTINE, A.

(pāl'ès-tin)

Formerly a part of Turkey, but during the World War was occupied by the Egyptian Expeditionary Forces of the British Army and, following the Versailles Treaty, was mandated to Great Britain. It is located south of Syria bordering on the Mediterranean Sea. Area, 9,000 square miles, being about as large as the State of Vermont. Capital, Jerusalem.

PANAMA, C. A.

(pān'ā-mā')

A republic in Central America bounded by Costa Rica on the west, the Caribbean Sea on the east, Colombia on the south and the Pacific Ocean on the west. Dividing the country at its center is the Canal Zone, site of the Panama Canal, a strip of land ten miles wide leased to the United States of America. The chief occupation is agriculture with the principal crops being bananas, cocoa, tobacco, sugarcane, etc. The timber lands are rich in mahogany and other hardwoods. Area, 32,360 square miles, or about as large as the State of Maine. Capital, Panama City.

These stamps have been reprinted in a number of shades, on thin to moderately thick, white or yellowish paper. They are without gum or with white, crackly gum. Some of the 50c stamps appear to have been reprinted from the original stone; they are all in a golden yellow shade, less brownish than the orange originals. All values have been reprinted from new stones made from retouched dies. The marks of retouching are plainly to be seen in the sea and clouds. On the original 10c the shield in the upper left corner has two blank sections; on the reprints the design of this shield is completed. The impression of these reprints is frequently blurred.

The stamps of this issue have been reprinted on papers of slightly different colors from those of the originals. These are: 1c yellow green, 2c deep rose, 5c bright blue, 10c straw, 20c violet. The 50c is printed from a very worn stone, in a lighter brown than the originals. The series includes a 10c on lilac paper. All these stamps are to be found perforated, imperforate, imperforate horizontally or imperforate vertically. At the same time that they were made, impressions were struck upon a variety of glazed and surface-colored papers.

The stamps of this issue are to be found with the handstamp placed horizontally, vertically or diagonally; inverted; double; double, one inverted; double, both inverted; in pairs, one without handstamp; etc.

This handstamp has been reprinted in brown rose on the 1, 5, 20 and 50c, in purple on the 1, 2, 50c and 1p, and in magenta on the 5, 20 and 50c. Reprints were also made in rose and black when the handstamp was nearly worn out, so that the "K" of "REPUBLICA" appears to be shorter than usual, and the bottom part of "LI" has been broken off. The "P" of "PANAMA" leans to the left and the tops of "NA" are broken. Many of these varieties are found inverted, double, etc. The reprints have been used to pay postage.

This overprint was set up to cover fifty stamps. "PANAMA" is normally 13mm. long and 1 1/2 mm. high but, in two rows in each sheet, it measures 15 to 16mm. This word may be found with one or more of the letters taller than usual; with one, two or three inverted "V's" instead of "A's"; with an inverted "Y" instead of "A"; an inverted "N"; an "A" with accent; and a fancy "P". Owing to misplaced impressions, stamp exist with "PANAMA" once only, twice on one side, or three times.

Setting "c" appears to be a re-arrangement (or two very similar re-arrangements) of setting "b". The overprint covers fifty stamps. "PANAMA" usually reads upward but sheets of the 1, 2 and 20c exist with the word reading upward on one half the sheet and downward on the other half. In one re-arrangement one stamp in fifty has the word reading in both directions. Nearly all the varieties of setting "b" are repeated in setting "c" excepting the inverted "Y" and fancy "P". There are also additional varieties of large letters and "PANAMA" occasionally has an "A" missing or inverted. There are misplaced impressions, as of setting "b".

This overprint is also set up to cover fifty stamps. One stamp in each fifty has "PANAMA" reading upward at both sides. Another has the word reading downward at both sides, a third has an inverted "V" in place of the last "A" and a fourth has a small thick "N". In a resetting all these varieties are corrected except the inverted "V". There are misplaced overprints as before.

Later printings show other varieties and have the bar 2½ instead of 2mm. wide. The colors of the various printings of Nos. 76 to 82 range from carmine to almost pink.

No. 83 was never placed in use.

The 20c violet and 50c bistre brown exist with bar 2½mm. wide, including the error "PAMANA", but are not known to have been issued. Some copies have been cancelled "to oblige".

PAPUA, O.
(pāp'ú-á; pā'pōō-ä)

A British possession, consisting of the southeastern portion of the island of New Guinea, which is administered by Australia. It was annexed by Queensland in 1883 to prevent from passing into the hands of other powers that section of New Guinea which was not claimed by the Netherlands. In 1884 a Protectorate, known as British New Guinea, was proclaimed and Queensland, New South Wales and Victoria undertook to defray the cost of administration. In 1906 the name was changed to the "Territory of Papua" by proclamation of the Governor General of Australia. This territory which in area is larger than the State of Wyoming, covering some 90,500 square miles, should not be confused with the "Mandated Territory of New Guinea" which was a former German possession on the island of New Guinea and lies north of the Territory of Papua. (See New Guinea). Capital, Port Moresby.

PARAGUAY, S. A.

(pär'a-gwā : pä'rä-gwī')

An inland republic in South America entirely surrounded by Argentina, Bolivia and Brazil. The country is generally suited to agriculture and cattle grazing and the meat-packing industry is firmly established. The principal product is Yerba Maté (Paraguay tea) which grows naturally in the forests and large quantities are exported annually. Area, about 61,647 square miles, which is somewhat larger than the combined areas of the States of Georgia and Delaware. Capital, Asunción.

PERSIA, A.

(pēr'si-ā; -shā)

(IRAN)

(ī-rān'; ē-rān')

On March 21, 1935, Persia officially adopted its ancient name, Iran.

A kingdom in Western Asia bordering on the Persian Gulf and the Gulf of Oman. The land arable but agriculture is limited; the higher slopes of the plateau and the well-watered mountain valley. There are valuable forests on the Caspian slopes and many minerals including gold, silver, tin, sulphur, mercury, cobalt, etc. The turquoise mines at Almasan are important and yield rich royalties. The most important industry is rug weaving for which the Persians have gained world fame. Area, 524,000 square miles which is approximately as large as the combined areas of the States of Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas and Oklahoma. Capital, Teheran.

30	SHAH (OR CHEM)	= 1 IRAN.
10	KRANS	= 1 DOWAN.
100	DINARIS	= 1 IRANIL.
100	DINAR	= 1 IRAN.
20	REALS	= 1 PERSIAVI.

In Persia there are many issues with unrounded surcharges. As usual with such surcharges there are numerous imitations, double and similar varieties. In collectors to not appear to be interested in these varieties, we do not list them.

Reprints:

1875 and 1876 issues.

The reprints of the 1sh and 1kr stamps are readily told; the pearls of the circle are heavier, the borders of the circles containing the Persian numeral of value are wider and the figure "1" below the lion is always Roman.

The reprints of the 2 shahi have the outer line of the frame at the left and at the bottom broken and on some specimens entirely missing.

The only distinguishing mark by which to tell the 4 shahi and 4 kran stamps is the frame, the outer line of which is of the same thickness as the inner line, while on the originals the inner line is very thin and the outer line thick; another feature of some of the reprints is a break in the ornament in the lower part of the circle below the figure "4".

In the reprints of the 8 shahi stamps the small scroll nearest to the circles with Persian numerals at the bottom of the stamp touches the frame below it; the inner and outer lines of the frame are of equal thickness, while in the originals the outer line is much heavier than the inner one.

All reprints are found cancelled to order.

Four varieties of each.

Nos. 33 and 34 are printed from re-engraved clichés. They have wide colorless circles around the corner numerals.

The reprints of the 1 kran and 1 toman are printed from the same die as the reprints of the 1 shahi and 1 kran of the 1876 issue; on these and on the reprints of the 5 krans the outer frame is of irregular thickness. The impression of the reprints of this issue is better than that of the originals.

PERU, S. A.

(pè-rōō')

A Republic in South America located on the western coast. Formerly was the most important of the Spanish Viceroyalties in South America, which declared its independence in 1821 and by force of arms actually gained its freedom in 1824. The country is traversed its entire length by three ridges of the Andes Mountains, there being seven peaks which reach to an altitude of more than 19,000 feet. The mountains are particularly rich in minerals and many valuable mines, some of which date back to the Incas, are operated. Although the hinterland is primitive and even unexplored, Peru possesses several cities on the coast, including the seaport of Callao. Area, 482,250 square miles which is as large as the combined areas of the States of Texas, Arizona, Nevada and Utah. Capital, Lima.

The reprints of the 2c are printed on a whiter and thinner paper than the originals, which are on a thick yellowish white paper. The embossing of the reprints is much sharper and the printing has been done more carefully. On the originals the frame line at the left is thinner than on the other sides. The reprints have the frame of equal thickness on all four sides.

Reprints were made in 1884. The overprint is from a new die in which the word "PLATA" is 3 mm. high instead of 2 1/2 mm. The cross bars of the letters "A" of that word are set higher than on the original die. The 5c is printed in blue instead of ultramarine.

The stamps formerly catalogued as Nos. 44 to 64 are now listed under "Occupation Stamps", Nos. N1 to N23.

Overprinted "Lima Correos" in Circle in Red and Triangle in Black.

J27 D1 1c bistre 1.50

Reprints of No. J27 have the overprint in bright red. At the time they were made the overprint was also printed on the 5, 10, 20 and 50c Postage Due stamps.

Postage Due stamps overprinted with Sun and "CORREOS LIMA" (as shown above No. 103), alone or in combination with the "U. P. U. LIMA" oval or "LIMA CORREOS" in double-lined circle, are fancy varieties made to sell to collectors and never placed in use.

POSTAL TAX STAMPS.

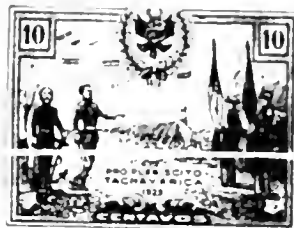

Plebiscite Issues.

These stamps were not used in Tacna and Arica (which were under Chilean occupation) but were used in Peru to pay a supplementary tax on letters, etc.

It was intended that the money derived from the sale of these stamps should be used to help defray the expenses of the plebiscite.

PROVISIONAL ISSUES.

Stamps Issued in Various Cities of Peru During the Chilean Occupation of Lima and Callao.

During the Chilean-Peruvian War which took place in 1879 to 1882, the Chilean forces occupied Lima and Callao, the two largest cities in Peru. As these cities were the source of supply of postage stamps, Peruvians in other sections of the country were left without stamps and were forced to the expedient of making provisional issues from whatever material was a hand. Many of these were formed cancelling devices made over for this purpose.

PHILIPPINES, A.

(fil'i-pēnz; pīnz)

(The Commonwealth of the Philippines)

A former possession of the United States of America, consisting of the largest island group of the Malay Archipelago. It lies in the North Pacific Ocean north of Borneo and east of French Indo-China. The islands were acquired from Spain as an outcome of the Spanish-American War and include 7,083 separate islands and islets. The largest is Luzon (40,814 square miles) while the smaller islets are considerably less than one square mile in area. The total area is 114,390 square miles which is approximately the size of the State of Arizona.

The Hawes-Cutting Bill, passed over Presidential veto on January 17, 1933, granted independence to the islands under certain conditions and officially designated the new autonomy as "The Commonwealth of the Philippines". On March 24, 1934, at the behest of President Roosevelt, a new Bill was passed by Congress which provides for recognition of Philippine independence after a ten-year transitional commonwealth government.

Some twelve million acres are under cultivation, with rice, sugar cane, Manila hemp, copra and tobacco as the principal crops. Fully one-half of the entire area is covered with forests which are of great value, being made up chiefly of rare cabinet woods. The mineral resources have not been developed to any large extent, although gold is found on nearly all of the larger islands and has been worked by the natives for a considerable period. Capital, Manila.

8 CUARTOS=1 REAL.

100 CENTESIMOS=1 PESETA OR ESCUDO.

1000 MILESIMAS=100 CENTAVOS=1 PESO.

100 CENTS=1 DOLLAR.

Issued under Spanish Dominion.

The stamps of Philippine Islands punched with a round hole have been withdrawn from use and punched to indicate that they are no longer available for postage. In this condition they sell for only a trifle, as compared to postally used copies.

OFFICIAL STAMPS.

Official Handstamped Overprints.

"Officers purchasing stamps for government business may, if they so desire, overprint them with the letters 'O. B.' either in writing with black ink or by rubber stamps but in such a manner as not to obliterate the stamp that postmasters will be unable to determine whether the stamps have been previously used". C. M. Cotterman, Director of Posts, December 26, 1905.

Beginning with January 1, 1906, all branches of the Insular Government used postage stamps to prepay postage instead of franking them as before. Some officials used manuscript, some utilized the typewriting machines, some made press-printed overprints, but by far the larger number provided themselves with rubber stamps. The majority of these read "O. B." but other forms were: "OFFICIAL BUSINESS" or "OFFICIAL MAIL" in two lines, with variations on many of these.

These "O. B." overprints are known on U. S. 1899-1901 stamps; on 1903-06 stamps in red and blue; on 1906 stamps in red, blue, black, yellow and green.

"O. B." overprints were also made on the centavo and peso stamps of the Philippines, per order of May 25, 1907.

Beginning in 1926 the stamps were overprinted and issued by the Government.

POLAND, E.

(pō'länd)

A Republic in central Europe. Prior to the eighteenth century, Poland had been an independent state but in 1772, 1793, 1796 it was divided among Prussia, Russia and Austria. In 1807, Napoleon formed a part of the old State into the Duchy of Warsaw which flourished for a few years until 1815 when it was again partitioned among the three countries mentioned. During the World War the Emperors of Germany and Austria, in a joint manifesto, proclaimed the independence of Poland and shortly afterwards a provisional government was formed. It was not, however, until November 9, 1918, that actual independence was achieved. Area, 149,920 square miles, which is somewhat larger than the State of Montana. Capital, Warsaw.

These stamps were superseded by those of Russia in 1865.

Issues of the Republic.

Local issues were made in various Polish cities during the German occupation. In the early months of the Republic many issues were made by overprinting the German occupation stamps with the words "Poczta Polska" and an eagle or bars, often with the name of the city. So far as we can learn these issues were not authorized by the Government but were made by the local authorities and restricted to local use. In 1916 a series of stamps was issued for the Polish Legion and in 1917-18 the Polish Expeditionary Force is said to have used surcharged Russian stamps. The regularity of these issues is questioned.

PORTUGAL, E.

(pôr'tu-gāl)

A Republic in southern Europe, lying on the western coast of the Iberian Peninsula. Has been an independent state since the twelfth century and until 1910 was a monarchy. In that year a republic was proclaimed following a brief revolution. About one-half of the arable land is under cultivation but methods are still primitive. The chief article of manufacture is wine. Area, 34,790 square miles which is approximately the size of the State of Maine. Capital, Lisbon.

3	A3	50r deep yellow green	150.00	25.00
		α. 50r blue green	150.00	25.00
4	A4	100r lilac	250.00	60.00

The stamps of the 1853 issue were reprinted in 1864, 1886 and 1905. Many stamps of subsequent issues were reprinted at the last two dates. The reprints of 1864 are on thin white paper with white gum. The originals have brownish gum which often stains the paper. The reprints of 1886 are on a stout, very white paper. They are usually un gummed, but occasionally have a white gum with yellowish spots. The reprints of 1905 are on creamy white paper of ordinary quality with shiny white gum.

When perforated the reprints of 1886 have a rather rough perforation 13½ with small holes; those of 1905 have a clean cut perforation 13½ with large holes making sharp pointed teeth.

The colors of the reprints usually differ from those of the originals, but comparison is necessary for this feature.

The reprints are often from new dies which differ slightly from those used for the originals.

5 reis: There is a defect in the neck which makes the Adam's apple appear very large in the first reprint. The later ones can be distinguished by the paper and the shades and by the absence of the pendant curl.

25 reis: The burelage of the ground work in the original is sharp and clear, while in the 1864 reprints it is blurred in several places; the upper and lower right hand corners are very thick and blurred. The central oval is less than

½ mm. from the frame at the sides in the originals and fully ¾ mm. in the 1886 and 1905 reprints.

50 reis: In the reprints of 1864 and 1886 there is a small break in the upper right hand diagonal line of the frame, and the initials of the engraver (F. B. F.), which in the originals are plainly discernible in the lower part of the bust, do not show. The reprints of 1905 have not the break in the frame and the initials are distinct.

100 reis: The small vertical lines at top and bottom at each side of the frame are heavier in the reprints of 1864 than in the originals. The reprints of 1886 and 1905 can be distinguished only by the paper, gum and shades.

The 5r dark brown, formerly listed and sold at about $1.00, is now believed by the best authorities to be a reprint made before 1866. It is printed on thin yellowish white paper with yellowish white gum and is known only unused. The same remarks will apply to a 25r blue which is common unused but not known used. It is printed from a die which was not used for the issued stamps but the differences are slight and can only be told by expert comparison.

Nos. 9 and 10, also 10a in rose, were reprinted in 1886 and Nos. 9, 10, 10a and 11 in 1905.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, N. A.

(prins ɛd'wɛrd i'lænd)

A former British colony in North America lying in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Was discovered by Jacques Cartier in 1534 and was first settled by the French. Became a British possession in 1758, was annexed to Nova Scotia in 1763, and made a separate colony in 1769. Became a part of the Canadian Confederation in 1873. Stamps of Canada are now used.

65 A4	½p on 1p brown orange	12.00	9.00
	a. "QUEENSLAND"	100.00

The stamps of the 1879-80 issue were electrotyped from plates made up of groups of four types, differing in minor details. Two dies were used for the 1p and 2p, giving eight varieties for each of those values.

There are two varieties of the watermark, differing slightly in the position and shape of the crown and the tongue of the "Q."

RHODESIA, AF.

(ró-dě'zhi-á; -zi-á)

(British South Africa.)

The territories in southern Africa administered by the British South Africa Company. The region north of the Zambezi is known as Northern Rhodesia and the region south of the Zambezi as Southern Rhodesia. In 1923 the residents of Southern Rhodesia voted in favor of responsible government and the country was formally annexed to the British Government. Northern Rhodesia was also created a British colony in 1924. (See Northern and Southern Rhodesia.)

Stamps of type A12 were intended to commemorate a proposed visit to Rhodesia of the Prince and Princess of Wales in 1910. The visit was abandoned because of the death of King Edward VII. Permission was subsequently given by King George to make the issue coincide with a visit of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught.

No. 118, was never issued in Rhodesia, but 100 copies were included in the remainder sold in London in 1924.

ROMAGNA, E.
(rô-mân'yâ)

Formerly one of the Roman States. Postage stamps were issued when a provisional government was formed pending the unification of Italy. In 1860 Romagna was annexed to Sardinia and since 1862 the postage stamps of Italy have been used. Romagna may be located on maps as the territory which at present forms the Italian provinces of Bologna, Ferrara, Forlì and Ravenna.

These stamps have been reprinted several times. The reprints usually resemble the originals in the color of the paper but there are impressions on incorrect colors and also in colors on white paper. They often show broken letters and other injuries. The V-shaped ornaments between the small circles in the corners are broken and blurred and the dots outside the circles are often missing or joined to the circles.

The stamps of Romagna were superseded by those of Sardinia in Feb., 1860.

ROMAN STATES, E.

(rō'mān stāts)

The Roman or Papal States are now a part of Italy. Formerly they constituted the area in Italy that was under the direct political control of the Popes. Postage stamps of Italy have been used since 1870.

The stamps of the 1867 and 1868 issues have been privately reprinted; many of these reprints are very well executed, and it is very difficult to distinguish them from the originals. On the originals the horizontal lines between stamps are unbroken, while on most of the reprints these lines are broken. Most of the perforated reprints gauge 11½.

The Roman States stamps were superseded by those of Italy in 1870.

ROUAD, A.
(rōō'ād')

An island in the Mediterranean Sea off the Syrian coast opposite the city of Latakia. During the period when a French Post Office was maintained on the island, 1916, postage stamps were issued by France. At present the island of Rouad is attached to Latakia (Lataquie). (See Alaouites and Latakia.)

ROUMANIA, E.
(rōō.mā'ni.ă)

A Kingdom in Central Europe, bordering on the Black Sea. Following the World War the original territory of Roumania was considerably enlarged by the addition of Bessarabia, Bukovina, Transylvania, Crisana, Maramuresh and Banat. The present area of Roumania is 122,300 square miles, which is approximately the size of the State of New Mexico. The principal occupation is agriculture, the chief crops being corn, wheat, barley, oats and rye. Capital, Bucharest.

Nos. 11 to 15 inclusive have usually been described as "handstamped". The impressions are, however, much too fine and clear for handstamps. The stamps were apparently printed with a hand-press, one at a time, from single dies. The impressions were very irregularly placed and were usually overlapped. Such sheets as we have seen contained thirty-two stamps in four rows of eight. The third and fourth rows were printed inverted, thus making the second and third rows tête bêche, foot to foot.

The stamps of the 1862 and 1863 issues can usually be distinguished by the colors. In the 1862 issue the 3pa and 6pa are often blurred and appear greasy, the 30pa are usually clearly printed. The 30pa of 1863 usually has a large dot at the left of the eagle's crown.

The plates for the 1863 issue contained forty clichés in five rows of eight. The first and second rows were inverted. The clichés in the third row were placed sideways, four with head to the right and four with head to the left, making one tête bêche pair. The fourth and fifth rows were in normal position.

The "Timbru de Ajutor" stamps represent a tax on postal matter. The money obtained from their sale was turned into a fund for the assistance of soldiers' families.

Until 1923 the only "Timbru de Ajutor" stamps used for postal purposes were the 5b and 10b. Stamps of higher values with this inscription were used to pay the taxes on railway and theatre tickets and other fiscal taxes. In 1923 the postal rate was advanced to 25b.

RUSSIA, E.
(rūsh'ā)

Formerly an Empire lying in Eastern Europe and Northern Asia. The Empire was overthrown during the World War and a socialist union of republics was formed under the name of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR). Only small portions of the original area of Russia were lost during the War and these were principally in the west where Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Finland and Estonia declared their independence. Offsetting this, the present government has made strong colonization progress in the far east in the region of Mongolia. Russia covers the largest area of any single country in the world, being 8,095,728 square miles, which is comparable with the area of the entire North American continent. Capital, Moscow.

1924-25

There are small differences between the lithographed stamps of 1923 and the typographed of 1924-25. On a few values this may be seen in the numerals.

Type A58: Lithographed. The two white lines forming the outline of the ear are continued across the cheek. Typographed. The outer line of the ear are broken where they touch the cheek.

Type A59: Lithographed. At the top of the right shoulder a white line touches the frame at the left. Counting from the edge of the visor of the cap, lines 5, 6 and sometimes 7 touch at their upper ends. Typographed. The top line of the shoulder does not reach the frame. On the cap lines 5, 6 and 7 run together and form a white spot.

Type A60: In the angle above the first letter "C" there is a fan-shaped ornament enclosing four white dashes. On the lithographed stamps these dashes reach nearly to the point of the angle. On the typographed stamps the dashes are shorter and often only three are visible.

On unused copies of the typographed stamps the raised outlines of the designs can be seen on the backs of the stamps.
